

1884

1894

1923

1966

1972

1973

1976

1985

1987

June 17
Oxford Savings Bank is created by Gabriel S. Holbert, Founder and first CEO, and John D. Hagerman, first President, and opened at 9 South Washington Street.

July 2
Transfer of assets from the Bank of Oxford to Oxford Savings Bank begins.

January 22
Oxford Savings Bank moves to 1 North Washington Street, becoming known as the "Bank On The Corner".

October 31
Oxford Savings Bank moves to 60 South Washington Street.

August 5
The building located at 1 North Washington was the home of Oxford Savings Bank from 1922 until 1966. After being vacant for several years, it was donated to the Village of Oxford to house the newly formed Northeast Oakland Historical Society.

May 2
The Lake Orion Branch opens at 1115 South Lapeer Road.

September 16
The Addison-Oaks Branch opens at 35 South Rochester Road.

July 1
Oxford Savings Bank changes its name to Oxford Bank.

June 8
The Clarkston Branch opens at 7199 North Main Street. Having purchased the building from Manufacturers Bank, the two banks operated together for one month so customers could transfer accounts to Oxford Bank.

July 20
Oxford Bank Corporation was incorporated.

1989

1990

1995

1999

2005

2009

2016

2021

2022

April 10
Due to increased loan volume, the Finance Center was built behind the Main branch at 64 South Washington.

October 1
The Ortonville Branch opens at 345 South Ortonville Road.

January 23
Oxford Bank opens its fifth branch in Dryden to fill the town's banking void. Transactions were made out of a trailer while a permanent residence was constructed.

August 1
The Dryden Branch moves into its new building at 5459 Main Street.

June 1
Oxford Bank purchases 485 North Lapeer Road to be used for its Operations Center.

July 1
The Davison Branch opens at 600 North State Road.

June 17
Oxford Bank celebrates its 125th anniversary.

January 8
Oxford Financial Solutions, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Oxford Bank, is created.

June 1
Interactive Teller Machines replace drive-through windows.

June 24
The Rochester Hills Customer Experience Center opens at 183 South Livernois.

December 1
Oxford Commercial Finance is officially formed.

April 15
The Ann Arbor Customer Experience Center opens at 2355 W. Stadium Blvd.

September 1
The Macomb Customer Experience Center opens at 51020 Hayes Road.

THROUGH THE YEARS

Delivering value. For life.